

HOUSE OF DRRs

Rotary International adopted the concept of DRR (District Rotaract Representative) in the year 1978-1979 to appoint a separate officer in a district to overlook the Rotaract activities. Being a democratic organization, every the DRR gets elected during District Conference. Each Club with a charter and an active status the prior year to the District Conference, secures a chance to vote through its president and he/she serves for a period of one year. The DRR shall essentially be a Rotaractor of that district and overlooks all the occurrences of Rotaract and its affiliated activities in a Rotary International District. Rotaract District Organisation, Rotary International District 3201 has so far elected 16 District Rotaract Representatives. Their information is as follows:
